Chicago based Kerasotes ShowPlace Theatres, LLC was founded in 1909 when Gus Kerasotes opened his first nickelodeon, The Royal, in Springfield, Illinois. Louis and Nicholas Kerasotes, Gus' sons, later led the business as Kerasotes Theatres grew to a regional company with 50 theatres by the mid 1960's. Today, Kerasotes is principally managed by third generation family, Tony and Dean Kerasotes, who have directed the company's aggressive growth since 1985. Several current projects highlight the emphasis on the Chicago market. In addition to the Kerasotes ShowPlace 14 in Cicero, the Kerasotes ShowPlace 12 at the Golf Mill Center in Niles will also open in November. Today, Kerasotes ShowPlace Theatres is the nation's seventh largest film exhibitor operating 80 theatres with 673 screens in Illinois, Indiana, Minnesota, Missouri, Iowa, and Ohio.
